

ARCHIVE – A JOURNAL OF UNDERGRADUATE HISTORY
VOLUME 14 SUBMISSION FORM

ARCHIVE is an award-winning historical journal published annually by the UW-Madison chapter of Phi Alpha Theta. Any original works are accepted for review by ARCHIVE. Short to medium-length scholarly papers as well as seminar research papers, portions of senior theses, articles, book reviews, historical essays or faculty interviews will be accepted from any UW-Madison undergraduate student, freshman to senior, history major or otherwise. To submit a piece to ARCHIVE for possible publication, please submit under the following guidelines:

- Please email your paper AND this submission form to:
 - uwarchive@gmail.com
- All papers must be typed, double-spaced, the body of the text in 12-point Times Roman font, endnotes or footnotes in 10-point Times font, preferably under 40 pages in length, though longer submissions will be accepted.
- Plagiarism will result in automatic disqualification. Citations, including endnotes or footnotes, should follow Turabian or Chicago Manual of Style Standards. Omit any reference to yourself in the text of the paper (i.e. your name, the course, and professor for whom you wrote the paper).
- This year, we will only be accepting electronic submissions. Please do not deposit your entries in the ARCHIVE Editor’s mailbox.
- SUBMISSION DEADLINE: FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 2012
